NATION'S SECOND-BEST POSTSEASON WINNING PERCENTAGE

Baylor's 17-4 postseason record over the past six seasons is the nation's second best among teams with three or more postseason berths since 2009. The Bears' 17 postseason wins trail only Kentucky (20-5) and North Carolina (18-5) during that span. Baylor went 4-1 and advanced to the 2009 NIT Championship game, 3-1 on their way to NCAA Tournament Elite Eight berths in 2010 and 2012, 5-0 to claim the 2013 NIT championship and 2-1 on its way to the 2014 Sweet 16.

DREW AMONG NATION'S ELITE

Head coach Scott Drew is the youngest of 11 coaches nationally to take his current program to three Sweet 16 appearances in the last five seasons. Drew (43) is joined by Arizona's Sean Miller (45), Ohio State's Thad Matta (47), Florida's Billy Donovan (49), Kansas' Bill Self (51), Kentucky's John Calipari (55), Michigan State's Tom Izzo (59), Louisville's Rick Pitino (62), Wisconsin's Bo Ryan (66), Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (67) and Syracuse's Jim Boeheim (69). In those three appearances, Baylor was twice eliminated by the eventual national champions (Duke in 2010, Kentucky in 2012) and once by a national semifinalist (Wisconsin in 2014).

BEARS PICKED SIXTH IN BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL

Baylor was projected sixth in the 2014-15 preseason Big 12 coaches' poll. The Bears received 36 points, which trailed Kansas (78), Texas (74), Oklahoma (67), Kansas State (53) and Iowa State (51). BU tied West Virginia (36) and was picked in front of Oklahoma State (27), TCU (15) and Texas Tech (13).

The Bears return two starters among five returning letterwinners from last season's squad that went 26-12 and advanced to the Sweet 16. Steady guard Kenny Chery and throwback forward Royce O'Neale both return for their second and final seasons in Waco. They're joined by bruising power forward Rico Gathers, athletic swingman Taurean Prince and versatile forward Ishmail Wainright. BU will also get help from forward Johnathan Motley and guard Al Freeman, who will debut as redshirt freshmen after sitting out the 2013-14 campaign.

RANKED IN SEVEN STRAIGHT SEASONS

Baylor and Kansas are the only Big 12 teams to be ranked in each of the last seven seasons. BU cracked a string of 38 consecutive unranked seasons when it was tabbed No. 25 in 2007-08. The Bears reached as high as No. 19 in 2008-09, No. 19 in 2009-10, No. 9 in 2010-11, No. 3 in 2011-12, No. 16 in 2012-13 and No. 7 in 2013-14.

BEST IN TEXAS

Baylor is 23-4 against in-state opponents since the start of the 2011-12 season, and the Bears have advanced deeper into postseason play than any of Texas' 21 Division I team in each of the last three seasons.

BU is a combined 37-8 against Lone Star State teams over the last five seasons after going 10-27 against in-state teams in Scott Drew's first six seasons at Baylor (6-3 in 2013-14, 7-1 in 2012-13, 10-0 in 2011-12, 5-3 in 2010-11 and 9-1 in 2009-10).

FIVE NBA DRAFT PICKS IN LAST THREE SEASONS

Baylor's five NBA Draft picks over the last three years are the nation's fifth most, trailing only Kentucky, Duke, Kansas and Syracuse and tied with Michigan and North Carolina. A program-record three Baylor players were selected in the 2012 NBA Draft — Perry Jones III (28th pick; Oklahoma City Thunder), Quincy Acy (37th pick; Toronto Raptors) and Quincy Miller (38th pick; Denver Nuggets). Pierre Jackson (42nd pick, Philadelphia 76ers; traded to New Orleans Pelicans) was chosen in the 2013 draft, and Cory Jefferson (60th pick; San Antonio Spurs; traded to Brooklyn Nets) was selected in 2014.

SEASON OUTLOOK

| RETURNING PLAYERS | |
|-------------------|--|
| 00 | ROYCE O'NEALE (F, 6-6, 215, Sr., Killeen, Texas) Throwback small forward started final 31 games a season ago ... Averaged 7.1 points, 5.4 rebounds and 2.9 assists in 27.3 minutes per game ... Transferred to BU from Denver after 2012-13 season. |
| 1 | KENNY CHERY (G, 5-11, 180, Sr., Montreal, Quebec) Steady All-Big 12 point guard ... Return to health sparked last season's 12-3 run over final 15 games ... Led Big 12 with .879 free throw percentage in 2013-14. |
| 2 | RICO GATHERS (F, 6-8, 280, Jr., LaPlace, La.) Bruising power forward, averaged 6.4 points and 6.4 rebounds in 17.8 minutes per game off bench last season ... Second cousin of late Loyola Marymount All-American Hank Gathers. |
| 13 | JOHN HEARD (F, 6-5, 200, Jr., Houston, Texas) Walk-on, spent 2012-13 season as student manager before joining team ... Played limited minutes in 11 games off bench last season ... Both parents are Baylor graduates. |
| 21 | TAUREAN PRINCE (F, 6-7, 215, Jr., San Antonio, Texas) Versatile forward, capable of scoring from all over the court ... Minutes more than doubled last season to 14.2 per game ... Switched from No. 35 to 21 in honor of former teammate Isaiah Austin. |
| 24 | ISHMAIL WAINRIGHT (G/F, 6-5, 250, So., Kansas City, Mo.) Physical player with versatility to play anywhere from point guard to power forward ... Started first seven games last season before settling into reserve role. |
| 25 | AL FREEMAN (G, 6-3, 200, RFr., Charlotte, N.C.) Physical guard with ability to get into paint ... Missed first eight weeks of 2013-14 season with wrist injury, took redshirt to retain four years of eligibility. |
| 35 | JOHNATHAN MOTLEY (F, 6-9, 230, RFr., Houston, Texas) Long, athletic forward with wealth of potential ... Added 20 pounds of muscle while sitting out 2013-14 season as redshirt behind big men Cory Jefferson, Isaiah Austin and Rico Gathers. |

Coming off a third Sweet 16 appearance in the last five years, Baylor is again looking to make history in 2014-15. While even years have been highly successful, featuring a 2008 NCAA Tournament berth, Elite Eight appearances in 2010 and 2012 and a Sweet 16 in 2014, the Bears have never made the NCAA Tournament in an odd year.

BU will look to change that trend with a new squad that's personnel is quite different from a year ago.

"Each team has different strengths, and one thing that we've always done is we've adapted our style of play to meet whatever our team's strengths might be," 12th-year head coach Scott Drew said. "The great thing is if you look at our offense, in the last three years, it's the third-best offense in the country in offensive efficiency ranking, behind Duke and Michigan. So we've been very efficient on the offensive end. We always find a way to make sure our guys are able to perform at their highest levels."

The Bears return two starters and five letterwinners from last year's 26-12 squad that won a pair of NCAA Tournament games before falling to Wisconsin in the Sweet 16. BU welcomes four signees, including a pair of junior college transfers that will provide some collegiate experience, along with a pair of highly-ranked recruits from the 2013 signing class who sat out last season as redshirts.

"I like accomplishing firsts, and with us, for some reason, Baylor University basketball has never gone to the NCAA Tournament on an odd year," Drew said. "We've never gone in back-to-back years. There's some firsts that we'd like to take care of, but each and every game, we want to win, we want to be competitive and put ourselves in position to win conference titles and win national championships. We believe in the people we have. Obviously, with a lot of transition, as far as players go, we'll be a lot better at the end of the year than the beginning of the year, but there's nobody we face that we can't beat."

The Bears came together to pull off one of the most remarkable turnarounds in Big 12 Conference history last season. After climbing as high as No. 7 in the national rankings, BU started Big 12 play 2-8 and its NCAA Tournament hopes were hanging in the balance. The return of a healthy Kenny Chery sparked the Bears to wins in seven of their final eight Big 12 games, then on to three straight wins to reach the Big 12 Championship title game and two NCAA Tournament wins to advance to the Sweet 16.

"We liked the beginning and the ending of last season," Drew said. "That middle part wasn't as nice. Anytime you have experiences and returning players, they can build and talk about all those experiences with the younger guys. First and foremost, hopefully the way we played at the end of the year, which was sound defensively, efficient on the offensive end, we were good at the free-throw line compared to the middle of the year, hopefully those things will all carry over to the beginning. The returning players should obviously share with the younger guys the importance of that."

Baylor's loss of three starters off that squad and the Big 12 Conference's projected depth contributed to the team being picked tied for sixth in the league in this season's preseason coaches' poll, the lowest the Bears' have been picked since 2009-10. BU was projected behind Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas State and Iowa State, respectively, and tied with West Virginia.

"At Baylor, we reload, we don't rebuild," Drew said. "So, we're excited about the new year. We've got a lot of new faces and a lot of players that are really excited. You can always tell the first day of practice, because you've got a gym full of guys and they're ready to get going. And I know with our coaching staff, especially, it's always exciting when you have a transition, meaning a lot of new faces, because there's so much to work on."

BACKCOURT

Baylor has a wealth of options in the backcourt, but it all starts with the steady hand of senior point guard Kenny Chery (11.5 ppg, 4.7 apg). Chery, a former junior college transfer, was an AP All-Big 12 honorable mention selection in his first season at Baylor a year ago. He led the Big 12 with an .879 free throw percentage, and his return from a turf toe injury spurred the Bears' 12-3 run over the final 15 games. Chery will be counted on for even more leadership in 2014-15 as one of only two seniors.

"When you have two seniors like Kenny Chery and Royce O'Neale, the great thing about that is you have two seniors that are diligent, they're great teammates, they're about the right things," Drew said. "As a coach, you feel very good that your team is going to be able to look up to guys like that who are servant leaders."

Senior Royce O'Neale (7.1 ppg, 5.4 rpg, 2.9 apg) is back after starting the final 31 games at small forward a season ago. A steady presence who does a little bit of everything, O'Neale came on strong at the end of the season, averaging 8.6 points, 8.3 rebounds and a team-high 3.6 assists over Baylor's seven postseason games. He'll be leaned on heavily as a leader with 101 games of Division I experience.

"I think the great thing is we have Kenny and Royce, who are both seniors, and both of them complement each other well," Drew said. "We need Kenny to be more boisterous, hold his teammates more accountable than he did last year when he wasn't a senior and it was his first year in the program. You look at those two, and Taurean Prince and Rico Gathers, and those four have done a very good job getting our guys to work hard, take care of business, making sure they're doing the right things on and off the court."

Joining O'Neale and Chery in the backcourt is redshirt freshman Al Freeman, a combo guard who missed the first eight weeks of last season with a wrist injury and ended up taking a redshirt to retain four years of eligibility. Freeman was ranked No. 62 in the 2013 signing class by Scout.com, and he's expected to help fill the hole left by the graduation of Brady Heslip and Gary Franklin.

|-----------|--|
| 11 | LESTER MEDFORD (G, 5-10, 175, Jr., Tucson, Ariz.) Big bodied JuCo transfer guard ... Two-time NJCAA All-American, first at Arizona Western in 2011-12, then at Indian Hills in 2013-14 ... Averaged 15.2 points, 6.1 assists as IHCC last season. |
| 23 | DEE DURHAM (G, 6-4, 175, Fr., Oakwood, Texas) Explosive guard capable of scoring in bunches ... Scored 2,720 points during four-year prep career, also played QB on 6-man football team ... From small East Texas town with population of 510. |
| 31 | T.J. MASTON (F, 6-7, 220, Fr., DeSoto, Texas) Long, athletic forward, No. 20 recruit in Texas according to 247Sports.com ... Nephew of Tony and Derrick Battie, who played at Texas Tech and Temple, respectively. |
| 33 | AUSTIN MILLS (G, 6-1, 175, Jr., Beverly Hills, Calif.) Walk-on guard, transferred to Baylor after playing two seasons as reserve at Pepperdine ... Averaged 2.4 points and 0.7 assists over 46 games played for Waves. |
| 45 | DENG DENG (F, 6-8, 205, Jr., Melbourne, Australia) Athletic JuCo transfer ... Born in Sudan, moved to Egypt at age four and Australia at age nine ... No. 4 ranked JuCo recruit according to 247Sports.com ... Averaged 19.8 ppg, 11.0 rpg in 2013-14. |

"Al Freeman is somebody that's a strong guard that can score, play multiple positions, can defend," Drew said. "There are a lot of things he can do. At the same time, I think he became a lot more consistent last year, going every day and chasing Brady around screens and guarding Gary has definitely helped him."

Another member of the 2013 signing class who is back for his second year in the program is Ishmail Wainright (1.9 ppg, 1.5 rpg). The broad-shouldered sophomore started the first seven games as a freshman last season before settling into a reserve role for the remainder of the year. A strong ball handler despite his bulk, Wainright is capable of playing point guard through power forward.

"Ishmail is such a unique player because of the things he can do at his size," Drew said. "It's extremely difficult to come in and play Big 12 basketball as a freshman, but he's had a year to adjust and we're excited about his progress. He's a great teammate and a great presence in the locker room."

Baylor has also added a pair of signees in the backcourt. Lester Medford is a two-time NJCAA All-American who led Indian Hills to a 34-3 record and averaged 15.2 points and 6.1 assists last season. He's another strong bodied combo guard capable of getting to the rim.

"Lester has the speed and athleticism that will definitely excite Baylor Nation," Drew said. "Both his offense and defense are pretty good. But I'm like most fans, I like guys that can score. Defensively, we know that night-in and night-out, that should be a constant. Nowadays if you can find people that can score, that makes it a lot easier to coach."

Freshman Dee Durham is a volume scorer who hails from the tiny East Texas town of Oakwood, population 510. A two-sport standout who quarterbacked Oakwood's six-man football team, he put up 2,720 points over his four years of prep basketball.

"Damiyne is an explosive guard who can score from all over the court," Drew said. "He's similar to LaceDarius Dunn, and he's someone the Baylor fans will certainly enjoy watching throughout his college career."

The Bears also added walk-on Austin Mills, who played the last two seasons as reserve point guard at Pepperdine. Mills played in 46 games over two years for the Waves, averaging 9.8 minutes per game. He'll be eligible immediately as a non-recruited student-athlete.

FRONTCOURT

Baylor has large shoes to fill in the frontcourt with All-Big 12 players Cory Jefferson and Isaiah Austin leaving for the NBA. Jefferson was a second-round draft pick, while Austin was diagnosed with a career-ending medical condition during pre-draft workouts. He's back at Baylor pursuing his degree and working as a student assistant on the basketball staff.

While the majority of BU's frontcourt players are inexperienced, the Bears have a rock to build on with junior power forward Rico Gathers (6.4 ppg, 6.4 rpg). The 6-foot-8, 280-pound bruiser has come off the bench in his first two years as a Bear while playing behind Jefferson and Austin, but he's the clear leader of an inexperienced frontcourt in 2014-15.

"Anytime you've had freshmen and sophomores, by the time they're a junior or a senior, they're going to be in a leadership role, whether they want to be or not," Drew said. "Rico's got a great personality, he's infectious, and people gravitate to him. It's one of those big-guy syndromes, everybody looks up to the big guy. He's always been a tremendous rebounder. We need him to be able to play longer and be able to stay out of foul trouble, because you don't have Cory and Isaiah to put back in the game. But at the same time, I know he's excited for an expanded role and an opportunity to show what he can do and what he's worked on."

Another player in line for an increased role is junior Taurean Prince (6.2 ppg, 2.8 rpg), a versatile athlete who can play small forward or stretch the floor at the four spot. Prince saw his minutes double from his freshman to sophomore year, and he's expected to play significantly more minutes as one of two returning lettermen in the frontcourt.

"Taurean has played a lot of minutes in the front line over his first two years, but he's also had times when he's had to wait patiently for his chance to come," Drew said. "He's really improved his defense, and he's always been capable offensively, so we're excited to see what he can do with an increased role."

One of the keys to Baylor's success this season will be how much the Bears get from redshirt freshman big man Johnathan Motley. He sat out last season due to the Bears' loaded frontcourt, but he's now the tallest player and best shot blocker on the team.

"Johnathan Motley going against Cory and Isaiah every day, that's something that anytime you can play against two pros every day you're going to get better," Drew said. "He put on a lot of size and strength and improved his vertical jump with (strength coach) Charlie Melton. He's somebody that I know a lot of people thought coming out had potential, and I think his production will start to back up some of that potential."

"Redshirts are huge for programs, especially because after a year they've adjusted academically, socially, they know their system," Drew added. "It really puts them a lot further ahead of all the other incoming players, so that means you expect a lot more out of them, especially in a year where we lost a lot of production and a lot of players."

The Bears also gain a pair of 2014 signees to provide depth in the frontcourt. Deng Deng is a long, athletic forward who lived in Sudan, Egypt and Australia before heading to Lee College in Baytown, Texas, for the last two seasons.

"Deng is similar to the past frontline players we've had - size and athleticism and length," Drew said. "On the slender side, only about 210 pounds, but somebody that when the ball's up there around the rim, you're always looking for him to come up with one of those big tip dunks or alley-oop plays. So, he's similar to Cory, Isaiah, some of the longer players we've had, just a little bit shorter."

"He's experienced a lot in the few years that he's lived so far," Drew added. "He's somebody that when you talk to him, it's a great smile, great personality, someone you want to cheer for, and someone you want your little kids to have a chance to see, because he is a great role model."

Incoming freshman forward T.J. Maston joined the program out of DeSoto (Texas) High School. At 6-foot-7, 220 pounds, he's another long, athletic forward with great basketball bloodlines. Maston is the nephew of Tony and Derrick Battie, who played at Texas Tech and Temple, respectively.

Maston helped DeSoto to a 31-4 record and No. 22 national ranking while playing Texas' highest level of prep basketball. A McDonald's All-America nominee, he averaged 13.7 points, 7.8 rebounds and 1.4 blocks per game as a senior.

"T.J. is a skilled post player who always manages to be in position to make plays," Drew said. "He's got a strong body, and he's only going to get stronger as he spends more time in our program. We're really excited about his potential."

The Bears also return walk-on John Heard, who spent the 2012-13 season as a student manager before playing limited minutes in 11 games last season.

HEAD COACH SCOTT DREW

SCOTT DREW

HEAD COACH • 11TH SEASON AT BAYLOR BUTLER, 1993

On Aug. 22, 2003, Scott Drew assumed Baylor's head coaching position and took over one of college basketball's most daunting rebuilding projects ever. Eleven years later, he became the program's all-time wins leader.

From 2007-14, Baylor rose to national prominence with Drew leading the team to six 20-win seasons, six postseason appearances, the Big 12's first NIT championship, Baylor's first postseason tournament title in its 107-year history, and a Big 12-best and school-record 17 postseason wins. The Bears advanced to the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight in 2010 and 2012, made the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2014, won the 2013 NIT championship, advanced to the 2009 NIT championship game and played in the 2008 NCAA Tournament, marking their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1988.

Baylor's 17-4 postseason record over the last six seasons is the nation's second-best among teams with at least three postseason appearances. The Bears went 5-0 to win the 2013 NIT title, posted 3-1 records on their way to the Elite Eight in both the 2010 and 2012 NCAA Tournaments, BU went 2-1 to advance to the 2014 Sweet 16, and Drew led Baylor to four wins en route to the 2009 NIT title game.

Drew is the only coach to guide Baylor to six postseason appearances and he is responsible 17 of the program's 20 all-time postseason wins. His teams have averaged 24 wins over the last seven seasons, giving Baylor seven straight winning campaigns for the first time since 1966-67 through 1972-73. Drew has compiled a 224-161 overall record with a 204-150 mark in 11 seasons at Baylor.

A program-record three players were selected in the 2012 NBA Draft, as Perry Jones III, Quincy Acy and Quincy Miller were all chosen. Pierre Jackson was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in 2013, and Cory Jefferson was picked by the Brooklyn Nets in 2014, giving the Bears five draftees in the last three seasons. Additionally, Isaiah Austin was projected as a first-round pick before a pre-draft evaluation diagnosed him with Marfan's Syndrome, a career-ending medical condition.

In 2013-14, Drew became Baylor's all-time wins leader by earning his 202nd career victory with an 86-69 win against Texas in the Big 12 Championship semifinals. He led the Bears to dominating NCAA Tournament wins against No. 3 seed Creighton and No. 11 seed Nebraska, earning the Bears a Sweet 16 berth for the third time in five seasons. Drew became the youngest of 11 coaches nationally to lead his current team to three Sweet 16s since 2010.

The 2013-14 team finished 26-12, including three straight Big 12 Championship wins to advance to the tournament title game for the third time in program history, and a win against No. 3-ranked Kentucky at Cowboys Stadium. The Bears were ranked for a seventh consecutive season, joining Kansas as the only Big 12 teams able to make that claim.

Drew led the 2012-13 Bears to 23 wins and the program's first-ever postseason tournament title when they won five consecutive games to claim the 2013 NIT championship. Baylor also won at No. 8 Kentucky, snapping the Wildcats' 55-game home winning streak, and BU handed Kansas a 23-point defeat, becoming the only team in NCAA history to beat Kentucky at Rupp Arena and defeat Kansas in the same season.

Baylor posted a school-record 30 wins and advanced to the NCAA Tournament South Regional final in 2011-12 -- making the Bears one of only six programs nationally with two Elite Eight appearances in the three-year span from 2010 to 2012. For the first time in program history, the Bears were ranked throughout the 2011-12 season, reaching as high as No. 3 and never dropping lower than 14th in the AP or coaches polls.

JOINING THE NATION'S ELITE

Drew's program reached new heights in 2011-12, when the Bears advanced to their second Elite Eight in a three-season span and had a program-record three players selected in the 2012 NBA Draft. The trio of seniors on that team left as the winningest class in program history, as Fred Ellis, Acy and Anthony Jones led Baylor to 100 wins in their four seasons together. The 2011-12 Bears established school records for overall (30) and Big 12 Conference (12) wins, and they were ranked as high as No. 3 nationally after sprinting to the best start in school history (17-0).

Headlined by Jones III, Baylor's 2010 recruiting class ranked No. 22 nationally by ESPN. PJ3 earned multiple freshman All-American honors, leading the Bears to an 18-13 mark. Baylor's consensus top-20 recruiting class of 2011 featured high school teammates Miller and Deuce Bello, and Drew's 2012 class, which featured three top-75 national recruits including consensus top-5 Isaiah Austin, was ranked No. 4 nationally. Drew has now brought eight top-50 recruits to Baylor in the last six seasons.

In 2010-11, senior LaceDarius Dunn became only the third player in program history to earn first-team All-Big 12 honors after becoming the Baylor and Big 12 all-time leading scorer. Dunn finished his stellar college career with 2,285 points and 388 3-point field goals.

Drew's task of rebuilding the Baylor men's basketball program reached a historic milestone during the 2009-10 season as the Bears advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in the NCAA Tournament's modern era. Entering the season, the Bears were picked 10th in the Big 12 Preseason Coaches' Poll after a trip to the 2009 NIT championship game. Behind All-Americans Tweety Carter, Dunn and Ekpe Udoh, Baylor won a then-school-record 28 games, including a school-best 11 Big 12 games. The Bears tied for second in the Big 12 standings - their best conference finish since 1988.

Baylor was ranked in the AP Top 25 poll for a then-school-record 10 consecutive weeks and concluded the 2009-10 season ranked 10th in the final ESPN/USA TODAY Coaches poll and 19th in the final AP Top 25 -- marking the first time Baylor was ranked in either season-ending poll.

Dunn shattered both Baylor's single-season and career marks for 3-point field goals made. Udoh, the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, annihilated both the Baylor and Big 12 single-season blocked shots record with 133 rejections. Udoh became the first NBA lottery pick in Baylor history when he was selected sixth overall by the Golden State Warriors in the 2010 NBA Draft. He also became only the fourth first-round NBA draft pick in program history and the first since Brian Skinner in 1998.

Drew was named the 2010 Division I Men's Coach of the Year in the state of Texas by the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches (TABC).

PROGRAM'S CORNERSTONE CLASS LEAVES INDELIBLE MARK

Baylor's fourth 20-win campaign in 2007-08 brought plenty of momentum, and the Bears became a national media staple during the 2008-09 season as the program set several school records. Baylor posted back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time in school history, while advancing to its first Big 12 Championship title game, only to fall to Missouri. During its improbable postseason run, Baylor became the first No. 9 seed to advance to the Big 12 Championship title game.

Drew's 2008-09 squad did something the 2007-08 Bears were unable to accomplish -- win a postseason game. The Bears notched the program's first postseason victory since 1950 when they defeated Georgetown, 74-72, in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament in front of a raucous Ferrell Center crowd. However, Baylor's postseason run did not stop there as the Bears snagged road wins at a pair of hostile arenas -- Virginia Tech and Auburn -- to advance to the National Invitation Tournament Final Four in New York City. Baylor reached the NIT championship game with a semifinal win over San Diego State at Madison Square Garden before falling to Penn State in the title game.

Baylor's four postseason wins tied for the most in school history. Seniors Curtis Jerrells, Henry Dugat, Mamadou Diene and Kevin Rogers departed Baylor as the winningest class in school history with 64 wins, helping Baylor to the second-most wins in school history (24). In addition, Jerrells, Dugat and Rogers combined to score 4,420 career points in 119 games, accounting for 49.3 percent of Baylor's offense in four seasons.

Baylor played a school-record 39 games, including a school-record 34 on television. Nineteen of those 34 games were televised nationally -- 18 on the ESPN family of networks. Prior to the 2008-09 season, Baylor had played just 14 games on the ESPN family of networks in the previous 11 seasons.

During the 2008-09 season, Baylor was ranked in the AP Top 25 for a then-school-record seven consecutive weeks. The Bears peaked at No. 19, one spot short of its highest ranking (No. 18 in 1969). The Bears were also ranked simultaneously in the AP and ESPN/USA TODAY Top 25 polls for the first time in school history.

NATIONAL ATTENTION

In his fifth season in Waco, Drew and the Baylor program turned the corner, posting just the fourth 20-win season in school history en route to its first NCAA Tournament bid since 1987-88.

The Bears' success in 2007-08 brought national exposure to the reclamation project orchestrated by Drew and his staff. Media outlets praised the efforts of Drew and he was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year by Rivals.com and the District VII Coach of the Year by the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA).

Despite being picked to finish ninth in the Big 12 by the league's coaches, the Bears raced to a 12-2 non-conference record (including a Paradise Jam championship) and opened conference play 4-0. The 16-2 start was Baylor's best since 1946 and resulted in the school's first national ranking since 1969. The Bears finished with a 21-11 overall record and earned the school's best-ever Big 12 finish with a fourth-place tie at 9-7.

Not to be outdone, Jerrells became just the second first-team All-Big 12 selection in Baylor history as he was named to the top squad by both the league's coaches and The Associated Press. Baylor had three players named to the 2007-08 All-Big 12 team, tying the school record which was set during the inaugural Big 12 season in 1996-97. In May 2008, Diene became the first men's basketball player and only second Baylor student-athlete to be named the Big 12's Sportsperson of the Year.

In September 2008, the Dallas All Sports Association presented Drew with The Don Nelson Award for great achievement both on and off the court of play in the spirit of NBA player and coach Don Nelson.

Baylor's place in the national men's hoops spotlight carried over to 2008-09 as the Bears were featured on ESPN.com's Preseason Top 25 by Andy Katz in June. Katz was just the beginning of the high projections for Baylor. Blue Ribbon picked the Bears No. 16 in its Preseason Top 25 poll, while CollegeHoops.net listed the Bears No. 17 overall and a possible Sweet 16 participant. Drew's squad also garnered preseason top 30 consideration from Athlon (No. 19) and Rivals.com (No. 28).

THE PROGRAM'S FUTURE FOUNDATION

Drew began his overhaul in 2003 when he took over a program decimated by tragedy, player departures, a depleted roster and NCAA restrictions. He slowly and methodically turned the program around by recruiting a solid foundation of talented high school players that, after earning valuable playing experience early in their careers, brought wins to Baylor as upperclassmen under Drew.

Drew's recruiting success (three of his first four classes were rated among the top 20 nationally), particularly under less-than-ideal circumstances, stocked the program with top-100 national prospects and provided optimism to Bears fans.

Long considered a top-level national recruiter, Drew's reputation was upheld immediately upon his arrival in Waco when his first three Baylor recruiting classes were rated 10th, 11th and 17th, respectively, in the nation -- widely considered Baylor's top consecutive recruiting classes to that point. The three-player 2007 class, while not ranked among the nation's top 20, did include the school's highest-ranked recruit in memory -- Dunn, ranked 24th nationally by Scout.com.

In his first season in 2003-04, Drew inherited a team with half the allotted scholarship players and he added a handful of walk-ons. The team -- which was summarily dismissed by all preseason prognosticators as having no chance to be competitive and perhaps finish winless -- surprised everyone by winning eight games, including three Big 12 Conference contests.

Drew and his overachieving Bears finished the season 8-21 and won over Baylor fans and basketball fans alike with their scrappy play and no-quit attitudes. The team exceeded all expectations and Drew was praised for his efforts and mentioned in Big 12 Coach of the Year discussions.

In his second season Drew took the court with the nation's most inexperienced team (one returning scholarship player). The 2004-05 Bears fought their way to a better record than the previous season, 9-19, including an impressive 73-72 road win at Purdue.

In his third season, Drew's 2005-06 Bears overcame perhaps their biggest challenge to date, when despite being banned from playing any non-conference games (due to violations of the previous coaching staff), Drew's very young Baylor squad defied the odds and won four Big 12 games (matching its conference win total from the previous two seasons) and finished the abbreviated season 4-13. The Bears played through the early season handicap and made news in the latter half of the season with noticeably improved play, evidenced by wins in two of the final four games (two losses by a combined seven points) and wins in four of their final five home contests.

Drew's 2006-07 squad showed glimpses of the success to come, when a team loaded with freshmen and sophomores played a full schedule and with a full allotment of scholarships for the first time in four seasons and posted a 15-16 record -- Baylor's most wins in six years. The Bears finished the season with three wins in their final six games, including the school's first victory in a Big 12 Championship game since 2001.

PRIOR TO BAYLOR

Success in the basketball world runs strong in the Drew family -- from Scott and brother Bryce (former NBA player and current Valpo head coach) to father Homer (former head coach at Valpo).

Drew came to Baylor after a decade of coaching at Valparaiso, the final year as head coach. He led the 2002-03 Crusaders to a 20-11 record and into the NIT. Valpo earned the Mid-Continent Conference regular season championship with a 12-2 league record.

The previous nine seasons, Drew served as an assistant at Valpo under his father, the legendary Homer Drew. He was promoted to associate head coach for the 2001-02 season. Drew coached his father's 200th win at Valpo (against Oakland on Jan. 27, 2001) when Homer was ill.

In 10 seasons at Valpo, Scott Drew helped lead the program to six NCAA Tournament berths, including the magical 1997-98 squad that shocked the nation by advancing to the Sweet 16. Valpo made five straight NCAA appearances from 1996 to 2000.

The younger Drew was responsible for three national top-20 recruiting classes during his last five years at Valpo.

Drew was named the 1998-99 National Recruiter of the Year by Court Vision and helped produce what HoopScoop.com named the nation's sixth-best recruiting class in 2001 (per average talent), the 13th-best in 1999 (per average talent) and the 27th-best in 2003 (per average talent), a class that included three top 100 national recruits.

Drew was part of the coaching staff that led Valpo to nine straight Mid-Con championships, including dual regular season and tournament titles in 1994-95, 1995-96, 1996-97, 1997-98, 1998-99 and 2001-02. The Crusaders were regular season champs in 2000-01 and 2002-03, and won the conference tournament in 2000.

Drew was the driving force behind Valpo's international pipeline that produced more than 10 players from Europe, Africa and South America from 1995 to 2003. He has European coaching experience, having served as head coach of the Athletes In Action team which toured Croatia and Bosnia in the summer of 1997. In August 1995, Drew assisted the AIA team that traveled to Germany, Macedonia, Bulgaria and Greece.

PERSONAL

Drew is a former first vice president for the NABC Assistant Coaches Committee and previously served on the National Invitation Tournament advisory committee.

A 1993 graduate of Butler University with a Bachelor of Liberal Arts degree, Drew earned a master's degree from Valparaiso in 1994. Drew worked with Butler's men's basketball program from 1991-93.

Drew and his wife Kelly are the parents of one daughter, Mackenzie, and two sons, Peyton and Brody.
